Canadian Badlands Passion Play

The 2017 season features a newly revised script that sees the life of Christ through the eyes of Simon Peter. The natural beauty of the set has been complimented by a new home for Simon Peter, a beach for his fishing boats, and a large central dock that serves as a versatile new playing area. Over 300 brand new costumes have been created for our volunteer actors, including an 8 foot wingspan for Gabriel the Angel! The new script is supported by an enhanced sound system and live musicians and singers.

For the 2017 season, Canadian film and stage actor, Giovanni Mocibob, is assuming the role of Jesus. Royal Sproule says, "We've never had a Jesus quite like this before. Gio's portrayal of Jesus brings an intriguing perspective to the traditional story."

There are nine performances from July 7 to 23rd and their 150th performance takes place on Sunday, July 9. At that special performance there will be a pre-show party in the big shade tent featuring birthday cake and a local Alberta singing duo, Lewis & Royal with special guest fiddler, Keith Hamm.

The new 2017 Passion Play will resonate with you in a new and fresh way. Whether it's your second visit or twentieth, you are sure to appreciate the considerable changes that are transforming this season into a vibrant and Epic Story of Faith, Hope, and Love. You can order tickets at www.canadianpassionplay.com or 403-823-2001. Fridays are seniors days with special seat upgrades and offers.

Loving Lord, shatter our strongholds, our tight grips on our desires and our lives. We want to be used by You to do amazing things. Help us to surrender completely and utterly to what You have in store for us, not turning to what we think gives us comfort, but turning to You. Bless our pain, our suffering. Bless our tools, the resources we have constantly at our disposal. Use them Lord. We are ready, and we are willing. Break us oh Lord! Amen.
