O Lord You Called Us Too....

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

It is Day 4 as Intentional Interim Pastor with you at LCOS. Some of you will know me well and perhaps even have stories to tell that are best not shared. (Thanks!) Others may remember me as Julianne Koivisto, Minister of Faith in Life (VBS, Small Groups, Confirmation, and visitation) from the early 1990's to 2000, the interim after Pastor Bill Roesler retired, or as one child at the time called me "the big haired lady."

My faith journey and life have continued with trials, challenges, hopes, celebrations, moments of joy and God's ever-present Spirit, nudging me, poking me and even pushing me into a closer, deeper relationship with Jesus and with the Christian community.

Part way through seminary, Dr. Craig Van Gelder challenged my class to join God in God's work of restoration, reconciliation, re-creation, and redemption of the world and all in it. This intention to join in the misseo Dei – God's mission - was at the least a paradigm change and at a deep level, an opportunity to reflect on our biases, attitudes toward and beliefs about others, particularly those who are different than we are. (More about reciprocal relationships with the neighbourhood later).

It gave the command love your neighbour a different perspective. This idea of joining in what God is already doing touch me deeply and since then my ordained ministry has centred around encouraging and equipping the church into this adventure. Some would say – Missional Formation - oh that is just a new program, but that is far from the truth.

This is my daily prayer:

"Lord God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading and your love supporting us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. (Eric Milner-White, Daily Prayer, 1956)

So, what can you expect over the next two years, as the congregation prepares to call a new pastor? Many ah ha moments, stories of God at work, challenges both personal and corporate, fun, laughter, inspiration, growth, all gifted to us by the Holy Spirit.

In addition to the normal pastoral duties, the Board has asked me to focus on encouraging and equipping, management of staff and ministries, moving forward with missional formation and walking with the congregation through their grief.

My prayer for us today is, Lord Jesus, give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading and your love supporting us.

Pastor Julianne

Shoe Box Work Bee—Nov 17th

Nov 4—Sewing kit prep! Why sewing kits? The kits provide an opportunity for girls in third world countries to gain valuable employment skills. We will be putting these together between the Services and after the 11 am Service if necessary.

Nov 17— Work bee: If you have items you have purchased for either the Operation Christmas Child Shoeboxes or the We Care sewing kits please let Jaqui Anderson know. She can be reached at 403-453-4071. For the work bee we are still needing balls, small toys and stuffed animals for girls and boys. These items can now be dropped off.

Questions? If you have purchased items, want to volunteer at the work bee, or help with the lunch please contact Jaqui Anderson or Katharine in the office.

Call Committee Update

Pastor Lee's retirement and years of ministry was celebrated with heartfelt appreciation for his love and care for the congregation. While there are a feelings of God speed and good wishes for Pastor Lee this is also a time of grief and letting go taking place between Pastor Lee and the members of Lutheran Church of Our Saviour.

It is very natural to want to ask Pastor Lee to come back and preside at special events, such as confirmation, baptisms, weddings and funerals; or to continue counselling or home and hospital visitation.

In order not to put any staff or rostered leader, including Pastor Lee in a difficult position we ask that you refrain from doing so. Roles are changing and others now must take over the pastoral roles and duties at LCOS.

There are clear boundaries set out for rostered leaders, in terms of pastoral care, in our Synodical by-laws. According to the Synod of Alberta and the Territories By-Laws, Part III, Section 9:

"A minister shall not preach or perform any ministerial act within the parish of another minister except at the latter's request or consent, or visit or perform ministerial acts in a time of a ministerial vacancy, except by invitation of the interim minister or congregational council. "

When a rostered leader leaves a congregation, there are bonds of affection between the pastor and members of the church, which continue to be cherished. Relationships of friendship may continue but the pastoral relationship does not. (Taken from the Call Manual)

If you wish you may contact Pastor Julianne with your questions or concerns or for clarification of this request.

"I know we're trying not to be stuffy around here, but let's not refer to 'A Mighty Fortress' as 'Martin Luther's Greatest Hit.' "

Philippians 1:3-4*

Part of what sets November aside as a special month is Remembrance Day. I remember back in elementary school we looked forward to the special assembly, because it meant getting out of classes! Over the years however, it has come to mean a lot more to me. Having brothers in the military makes it a lot more special, as well as knowing so many other people who have dedicated their lives to serving our country. Rather than it just being one day, the attitude of remembrance became something I started to focus on for the entire month, and something that I think seeps into a little bit of every day now for me, no matter the month. Remembrance and reflection are important actions that we need to take as Christians, but also just as people. It is in remembrance and reflection that our hearts grow with love, appreciation, and gratitude. It is in remembrance and reflection that we see the hand of God, even in the trials and pain. It is in remembrance and reflection that we are drawn closer together as a country, as a community, and as a family of faith. So take some time this month to remember. Remember our troops past and present. Remember the acts of servitude that have blessed your life. Remember the many different ways that God has shown He loves you, including your freedom. Remember.

Choir News

We are looking for ways of maintaining a choir program at LCOS. It is becoming harder as choir members leave without new members coming in. In order to keep a viable program we need at least three members on each part. Fewer than that puts a lot of pressure on someone to attend every single Sunday, and the whole idea of being in a choir is to sing joyful praise to God, not to instill guilt!

We are looking to bring a choir together to sing a piece of seasonal music for advent / Christmas. We will meet with interested singers immediately after the 11 am service on Nov. 11 (easy to remember – after 11 on the 11th!). We will hand out some music and see what level of interest there is to see if we can move ahead. We will also look at other rehearsal times so we can prepare for presentation to the congregation.

No need to be a professional singer – none of us are! You don't even need to know how to read music; you can learn along with us! Just a love of singing and a commitment to serving the Lord through music. If you have questions, talk to Alex or email him at mckayfam@telusplanet.net. We hope to see you there!

Spiritual Direction

Are you interested in exploring spiritual direction?

Spiritual direction is a spiritual practice of listening and supporting someone to deepen their relationship with God and grow in their spirituality. The intention is to create a space where a person can grow in their openness to perceiving and being shaped by God's presence and activity in their life.

Spiritual direction is a simple, but profound process. A directee meets monthly with a director. The time begins with a period of immersion in prayer and scripture. Then together they listen prayerfully for how God is speaking in scripture and the circumstances of life.

For more information about spiritual direction you can visit Rev. Ryan Anderson's website at: <http://transforminggrace.org/spiritual-direction/> or you may contact him directly at engagingtransformation@gmail.com or call (403) 993-7123

Ryan's training as a spiritual director was received through Fr. Bob Mitchell at Mount Saint Francis. This training followed the Franciscan style of spiritual direction. Ryan has also been a recipient of spiritual direction since 1999 with directors from the communities of Taizé, St. John the Evangelists and Mount St. Francis. His practice of spiritual direction is also shaped by his experience in interfaith and inter-spiritual dialogue as well as his formal theological training at the Lutheran Theological Seminary and Harvard Divinity School. Ryan was ordained as a Lutheran Pastor in 2007.

Bishop's Message

Dear Beloved of God –

We have just concluded the season of Area Gatherings: Northern (Sept. 28-29 at Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, Stony Plain in collaboration with St. John Lutheran of Golden Spike, Spruce Grove and St. Matthew, Spruce Grove), Southwestern (Oct. 13 at First Lutheran, Calgary), Southern (Oct. 13 at Spirit of Grace Lutheran, Brooks via video report and telephone Q&A) and East and West Central (Oct 20 at Zion Lutheran, Bashaw).

Thank you to the Area Leadership Teams for your preparation for and planning of the Area Gatherings. I value these times when we have the opportunity to gather together as God's people for worship, learning, conversation and feasting.

This year we gathered under the theme: "Faith, Hope and Love" which was an extension of our Synod Convention theme and conversation from I Cor. 13. For our Dwelling in the Word we spent time together considering the text of I Thess. 1:2-3: We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Participants shared in part of the need to see ourselves as "we", as community together; conversation centered around how a spirit of gratefulness might impact our faith community and neighborhood; and of the work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope which they see.

Then most gatherings viewed a brief video (The Synod Convention Interview – All Questions) prepared during the Synod Convention around faith, hope and love. These videos and a summary (all questions) video are available on our synod website for your use: albertasynod.ca/convention/area-gatherings/area-ga...

Much of the rest of our time was spent in conversation around how we might work collaboratively within our Areas and across our Synod in faith, hope and love.

I look forward in the next couple of months to meet with each Area Leadership Team for further conversation, listening and discernment together as we move forward always giving thanks...constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

In Christ Jesus –

Shalom,

+Bishop Larry Kochendorfer

PATHWAYS TO PRAYER Series One

Prayer is the foundational mystery and calling of our relationship with God.
It is God's gift to us and our response to God. We long for it.

*We may wonder how should I pray? How can I stay faithful to it? What are its benefits?
How can I know God really has heard my prayers?*

Join Dr. Faith Nostbakken online and in-person for a guided tour to PATHWAYS TO PRAYER.

We'll look at what it means to meet God in prayer, how our personalities may influence the way we pray, what Scripture says about prayer, and above all, how we might spend time together in prayer itself.

We will also consider the treasure of the Psalms as the earliest prayer book of our tradition, one that can still be a rich guide and source of prayer for us today in its broad range of emotions from praise to lament.

All relationships take an investment of time. Prayer is our opportunity to spend time with God who also desires to spend time with us.
Together let us grow in experiencing afresh our relationship with God.
Share in the journey of travelling PATHWAYS TO PRAYER.

She is a diaconal minister of the ELCIC, an ecumenical officer for the ABT Synod, and member of Glory Lutheran Church in Sherwood Park, Alberta.

Live Courageously

"They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life." – 1 Timothy 6:18-19

Dear Friends and Members of Lutheran Church of Our Saviour:

Live Courageously, based on 1 Timothy 6:18-19, is the theme for our congregation's stewardship emphasis this year. This theme is particularly appropriate as we focus on deepening our understanding of stewardship as a spiritual discipline, and we consider where God is leading us as a generous faith community.

During our emphasis on Sunday mornings we will think about our faith, our passions, and our roles as God's generous stewards. As we increase our understanding of God's blessings and our church's mission, we will see more clearly how our participation and support can make a difference in the congregation and beyond.

On November 25th – our Commitment Sunday – each household will be asked to consider their blessings and voluntarily make a response. This is a symbol of our individual and collective witness to Christ's presence in our lives. We look forward to your participation as we explore our calling to be a generous and servant church.

In Christ's service,
Cliff Blumhagen
Financial Secretary

Get on PAR (Pre-Authorized Remittance) at LCOS

Did you know that you may give to LCOS via pre-authorized remittance one time per month from your bank or credit union chequing account? This program is like any other pre-authorized debit program and is called the PAR (Pre-Authorized Remittance) program. Debits will be drawn from accounts on the 20th of each month. Whenever the 20th falls on a weekend or holiday, the debits will be drawn on the first business day following the 20th. Donations via the PAR program will be recorded on quarterly statements and year-end tax receipts along with all other giving.

Amounts from PAR can be directed to:

- 1) The LCOS general budget
- 2) Canadian Lutheran World Relief (CLWR)
- 3) Capital Maintenance

You can give additional amounts and to other purposes via your regular donation envelopes.
The minimum amount to give via this program is a total of $50.00 per month.

You can sign up, make banking or donation amount changes, or withdraw from the program at any time. These changes will be effective the month following the submission of the change. Forms are available to process these changes. The program is administered by the Financial Secretary. Authorization forms are available in the Place of Welcome.

Internet e-transfers & PayPal are also available!

To make a one time or recurring email transfer simply send donations to donate@oursaviourchurch.ca. Please include either your envelope number or your name and address in the email so that we can give you a proper receipt at the year's end.

Breakforth Weekend—Group Adventure

Join us for one weekend where Christ-followers of all generations and all denominational backgrounds from all regions of Canada gather to worship one God.

Our cultural landscape is changing. The rate of change is accelerating faster than at any time in history. If the church is to speak into this changing reality with the love and grace of Jesus we will need to do so prayerfully, strategically, thoughtfully, lovingly and humbly. As One.

Break Forth One is an invitation to come together in unity. It's an invitation to leaders and the broader church to come together for one weekend to dialogue, listen, learn and pray together—to be equipped and empowered—to reach our neighbourhoods, cities, and country.

There is an opportunity for a group rate if 10 or more people would like to attend if booked by November 30th. There is programming for youth and adults and as such would be appropriate for grade 9 and up. If you are interested in attending Breakforth please contact Jesse or Katharine. The group rate by November 30th would be $179.00 per person including the pre-conference (not including hotel). For speaker and worship line details please check out:
