Lord, we lift up the Hartwell family after the loss of Hagen’s father this past week. Be with them, and wrap them in Your loving embrace. Provide comfort and wisdom to the family, and soften the hearts of all.

“Drop in Dwelling” (Exploring God’s Word together)

During the summer months (June, July, August) we are gathering for “Drop in Dwelling” on Wednesday nights. Come when you can, as often as you want.

We will meet in room A/B from 7:00 - 8:30 pm. Each evening will be different; a new scripture reading, rotating leaders, a mixed group of participants, and unique conversations.

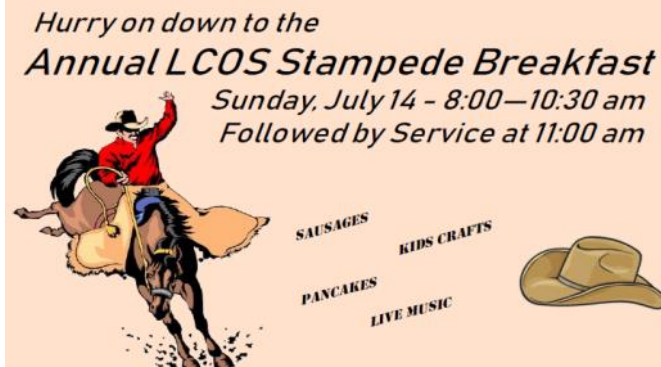

The focus of each gathering is to explore what makes us wonder, what surprises or annoys us from the text and sharing it with the group. Everyone is welcome.

SWARM – Welcome to Canada!

The Sharif family has arrived and settled into their home in Dalhousie. Almost everyone is in school. Mom and dad are studying English, the younger 3 children are in their community schools (grades 2, 5 and 9). The older girls (ages 22 and 24) are in evening English classes. They are keen to work and have been handing out resumes. They want to keep busy and would love to help with yardwork or housework or anything else. Keep them in mind! Granny and another young girl are at home and enjoying their house. Everyone has bus passes and they are getting lots of practice on the transit system.

The family enjoys opportunities to practise their english skills and make new Canadian friends. If you would like to pop over or share a Calgary experience with them (the Zoo, Heritage Park, etc) we can help set that up. The Southwest Area Refugee Mission continues the fundraising effort to assist the family with rent for their first year in Canada, allowing them to focus on learning English and finding work. Financial donations are welcome at any time. Jaqui Anderson can give you contact information. Or contact Marla Mulloy at 403-617-6494.
