I cannot tell you how the light comes. What I know is that it is more ancient than imagining. That it travels across an astounding expansion to reach us.

That it loves searching out what is hidden,
what is lost, what is forgotten or in peril or in pain.

That it has a fondness for the body for finding its way toward the flesh for tracing the edge of form, for shining forth through the eye, the hand, the heart. I cannot tell you how the light comes, but that it does. That it will.

That it works its way into the deepest dark that enfold you,
Or arriving in a shape you did not foresee,
And so may we this day turn ourselves toward it.
May we lift our faces to let it find us.

Our Mission... We are an inviting and growing Christian presence, with a passion for living and sharing Jesus Christ.

Our Vision... To be a Christ-centered community that Equips Disciples to Make Disciples.

If you are a visitor, during the time of offering, we have no financial expectations of you. Following the service you are invited for coffee and fellowship. We would be blessed to have you share in worship with us again.

Today:

Here's a general request for all those who use this building! If you unlock a door, please make sure you lock it when you leave. If you turn on a light in a room when you enter, please turn it off when you leave. If you turn up the thermostat in a room, please ensure you turn it back down when you leave. Thank you in advance for your co-operation!

Thank you to the dozens of volunteers who so generously gave their time and/or talents here at LCOS in 2019.

A huge Thank You from the staff for the warm Christmas wishes and gifts they received—they are so appreciated.

Upcoming:

The deadline for Annual Report submissions is fast approaching! Please have your items submitted to the office by January 10, 2020.

2020 Offering Envelopes are now available in the lobby. Be sure to pick yours up. If you did not receive a set and would like one, please contact the church office.
